TIRED OUT.

There's many a wife sits in the growing shadows of an evening, knowing what it is to feel tired out; as if there was not another ounce of effort left in her. But if healthy she knows how sound her slumber will be and how refreshed the morning will find her. But it's another thing for the sick woman to feel tired out. Rest only seems to increase her suffering. She feels acutely the aching back and throbbing nerves.

Sick women, hundreds of thousands of them, have been made well by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"I am pleased to inform you of the benefit I received from using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery,'" writes Mrs. Elizabeth A. Oswold, of 45 Brant Street, Windsor, Essex Co., Ontario, Canada. "Was quite discouraged when I wrote asking your advice, as the physicians here told me I could get no relief except by an operation. Suffered for four years from irregular and profuse menstruation, had sick and nervous headaches most of the time, and at times could hardly walk across the floor from weakness. I thank God there is such a remedy as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for suffering women. Before I had taken the first bottle the headaches had left me and it was not long before regularity was established and still continues so. Have just finished house-cleaning which I never expected to be able to do again, and can truly say I never felt better than at present. I gladly recommend 'Favorite Prescription' to all who suffer from female weakness. It has cured me and made me stronger in every way. Neither my husband nor myself can say enough in its praise."

The selfish seller who urges some substitute is thinking of the larger profit he'll make and not of your best good.

MEETING OF GENERALS.

A dispatch from the headquarters of the Third Japanese army in front of Port Arthur, says: The meeting of Gen. Nogi and Gen Stoessel Thursday was as undramatic as the conclusion of the siege. It had previously been arranged to take place at noon in the single undamaged house of the village of Shuishi. This house was a miserable hovel, called Plum Tree Cottage.

Through a misunderstanding Gen. Stoessel rode out to Port Arthur at 10 o'clock, accompanied by Col. Reiss and two staff officers, to the Japanese lines and missed the Japanese officer delegated to escort him to the meeting place. The general rode there without an escort and was received by a junior officer, who happened to be on the spot. The latter telephoned to Nogi, who hurried his departure from headquarters and arrived at 11 o'clock, accompanied by Maj. Gen. Ijichi, his chief of staff, and Cols. Yasuhara, Matsudaira, and Watanabe, staff officers, and M. Kawswarin, secretary of the foreign office at Tokio. Gen. Stoessel is a large man of heavy appearance and looks like a good fighter.

When Nogi, looking carewo n, entered the compound of the cottage the two generals cordially shook hands, and Nogi, through an interpreter, expressed his pleasure at meeting a general who had fought so bravely and gallantly for his Emperor and country.

Gen. Stoessel thanked Gen. Nogi for the pleasure of meeting the heroic commander of the victorious army.

Gen. Nogi explained that he had received a message from his Emperor, asking that the greatest consideration be shown to Gen. Stoessel and his officers in appreciation of their splendid loyalty to their Emperor and country. Because of that wish, he added, the Russian officers would be allowed to wear their swords.

Gen. Stoessel expressed his gratitude to the Japanese Emperor for thus saving the honor of his (Stoessel's) family, and said his descendants would appreciate the thoughtful kindness of the Emperor of Japan. The general also expressed the gratitude of his officers, and thanked Nogi for sending the message from Stoessel to Emperor Nicholas, and transmitting his majesty's reply, which read:

"I allow each officer to profit by the reserved privilege to return to Russia under the obligation not to take further part in the present war, or to share the destinies of their men. I thank you and the brave men of the garrison for the gallant defense."

Both generals then mutually praised each other and their officers for their bravery.

The conversation afterward turned on the explosion of the mine at Shungshu Mountain fort. General Stoessel said the entire garrison of the fort was killed or made prisoners. The Russian commander greatly praised the Japanese artillery practice, especially the concentrated fire instantaneous with the explosion of Sungshu mine. The gallant deeds of the Japanese infantry, Gen. Stoessel added, spoke for themselves. It was impossible to exaggerate their good qualities. The skillful work of the engineers had also won his admiration.

Continuing, Gen. Stoessel said he had heard that Gen. Nogi had lost both his sons, and praised his loyalty in thus sacrificing his sons, who had died fighting for their Emperor and country.

Gen. Nogi smilingly replied:

"One of my sons gave his life at Nanshan and the other at 203-Meter Hill. Both of these positions were of the greatest importance to the Japanese army. I am glad that the sacrifice of my sons' lives had been in the capture of such important positions, as I feel the sacrifices were not made in vain. Their lives were nothing compared to the object sought."

Gen. Stoessel then asked permission to present his charger to Gen. Nogi as a token of his appreciation and admiration. Gen. Nogi expressed his thanks for the Russian general's kindness, but said he could not accept the horse, but, he continued, he would accept it for the army, since he felt that the Russian horses were the property of Japan, and felt he could not make Gen. Stoessel's charger his private property. Gen. Nogi also promised that when the horse was handed over to him to see that it was treated with the greatest kindness out of respect for the brave Russian general.

Thereupon Gen. Stoessel assured Gen. Nogi that he admired his rigorous principles and appreciated his point of view. The Japanese commander requested Gen. Stoessel to continue to occupy his residence at Port Arthur until arrangements were completed for the return of himself and family to Russia.

Referring to the burial of the dead, Gen. Nogi said the Japanese since the beginning of the military operations had always buried the Russian dead. Those found later would be interred at a special spot and a suitable memorial would be erected as a tribute to the bravery of the Japanese former foes.

After luncheon, at which both generals sat together, a group photograph was taken at the cottage, and Gen. Stoessel remounted his charger to show the horse's good points, said good-by to Gen. Nogi, and rode back to Port Arthur.

The quiet and even solemn meeting of the generals ended at about 1 o'clock.

The regular Russian soldiers in Port Arthur marched out Thursday. The only troops now in the city are the volunteers.

Two fires were started in Port Arthur Thursday, for which Gen. Stoessel apologized. He said the volunteers were unable to control the populace, and he desired that the Japanese enter Port Arthur immediately to keep order.

The formal entry of the Japanese army into Port Arthur was fixed for yesterday.

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store.

Mr. Wm. S. Crane, of California, Md., suffered for years from rheumatism and lumbago. He was finally advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did and it effected a complete cure. This liniment is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Tonic to the System.

For liver troubles and constipation there is nothing better than DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little Pills. They do not weaken the stomach. Their action upon the system is mild, pleasant and harmless. Bob Moore, of LaFayette, Ind., says: "No use talking, DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work. All other pills I have used gripe and make me sick in the stomach and never cured me. Dewitt's Little Early Risers proved to be the long sought relief. They are simply perfect." Persons traveling find Little Early Risers the most reliable remedy to carry with them. Sold by all druggists.

Alexandria Gazette AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS

MONDAY EVENING, JAN. 9, 1905.

ACCORDING to newspaper reports, one hundred thousand men are out of employment in the city of New York, and this, too, in midwinter and with no relief in sight. The charitable institutions of the city are taxed to their fullest capacity in alleviating the distress of the unemployed. These are sad conditions in any community, but more so in a large city which is a world in itself, where thousands of people are pushing, shoving and knifing each other; where landlords are inexorable and everything that enters into housekeeping is dispensed on a cash principle. Yet the great majority of people prefer to crowd into a metropolis where many eke out sorry existences. In the smaller cities or rural districts worthy people generally manage to find employment at one occupation or another, while in the great whirlpools, where they are unknown, they may tramp the streets from morn till night without finding work or a friend. An impecunious individual once spoke of the "terrible London streets" which he traversed in a penniless condition without meeting a single acquaintance. The great British metropolis is said to contain at present half a million people who are out of employment. Work cannot be procured and but few persons can be found who will manifest any interest in the sufferings of the unemployed.

THE guarded secrecy of the tariff revision conference of the republican leaders at the White House Saturday, the fact that President Roosevelt pledged everyone of his visitors not to reveal what occurred therein, and the fact that several other conferences of like character are to be held, all indicate that Mr. Roosevelt has up his sleeve some plan for tariff revision. This conviction is strengthened by the fact that there is much excitement in the inner circles of the "stand-patters." They have heard something that has given them a scare as they have not had before since the Dingley bill became a law. Saturday's conference was the first of the kind, but there are to be others, and the matter of tariff revision and the time for an extra session to accomplish it will not be fully decided until the leaders have thrashed the matter out to its conclusion and agreed upon a definite policy. This policy will then be presented in a special message from the President to an extra session of Congress, called probably next fall for the purpose of revising the tariff. There is a rumor that the President's tariff plan includes a feature that may be considered disastrous by the trusts, but the rumor cannot be traced to a source.

HON. C. A. SWANSON, who for a number of years has well and faithfully represented the Fifth district in Congress, has written a formal announcement of his candidacy for the democratic nomination for Governor. In his letter he says he is in favor of the primary plan of selecting candidates; is in favor of building up the public school system and of improving the public highways; is in favor of developing the State's agricultural interests, and of all measures that will tend to promote intelligence, public morals and the material welfare of Virginia. Mr. Swanson, since he entered Congress, has devoted himself to the interests of his district, State and county, and is known as one of the useful and hard working members of the House. Four years ago he was a candidate for governor and after a gallant fight was defeated by the brilliant Montague. In that contest he made hosts of friends and the manner in which he accepted defeat won for him many more, for instead of sulking in his tent, he made an earnest and effective canvass of the State for his successful rival and helped roll up for him a handsome majority.

TARIFF revison has been postponed until fall. The proposition to hold a special session of Congress in the spring for the purpose of readjusting the tarifi schedules was finally disposed of at the conference held at the White House Saturday. Instead, arrangements will be made whereby the republican members of the ways and means committee of the House and the finance committee of the Senate will examine existing schedules and investigate changes in commercial conditions in the summer, with a view to having a tariff bill in readiness to be introduced at an extra session of Congress to be called in October or November. The President wanted an early extra session but was outvoted and yielded to superior numbers.

REPUBLICAN schemes for stealing Colorado have been abandoned or at least postponed for the present. Their intentions to steal were all right but the boldest partisans found their courage oozing out of their finger tips when confronted with the necessity of throwing out ten or fifteen thousand votes in order to keep Gov. Peabody in office. The legislature has decided to declare Adams's election on the face of the returns, and contests for seats in the legislature will await the inauguration of the new governor.

THE faculty of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute have taken a firm and proper stand concerning the cadets who left that institution because some of their number had been disciplined and expelled for violating the rules. Horse play and the spirit of rowdyism is too prevalent in many colleges nowadays anyway, and should be summarily suppressed; otherwise there can be no discipline, and no college can be successfully conducted when rules and regulations are set at naught.

IT is officially announced at the White House that nothing definite had been accomplished at the conference of republican leaders held there on Saturday. The King of France with twenty thousand men marched up the hill and then marched down again.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., Jan. 9.

Major Benjamin F. Montgomery, for many years at the head of the White House telegraphic force, was today ordered to report for duty at Benicia Barracks, California. Major Montgomery has been employed at the White House since the administration of President Hayes. During the Spanish war he was in charge of the famous "war room" and kept track of the fighting forces of the United States and Spain for President McKinley, who used to spend many hours each day scrutinizing the great maps upon which Major Montgomery and his assistants indicated the shifting armies and navies with little flags appropriately marked. At the conclusion of the Spanish war, Major Montgomery, then a lieutenant colonel in the signal corps of the volunteer army, was made a captain in the regular service. About six months ago he was promoted to be major in the signal corps.

The House committee on the judiciary by a party vote, today determined to report to the House, with the recommendation that they lie on the table, four resolutions introduced by Representative Baker, of New York. The resolutions provide that the attorney general report whether he has taken any steps to confiscate property in transmit belonging to the beef trust; that the President be asked whether he has taken up with the cabinet the question of the criminal nature of the beef, coal, and steel trust and the Standard Oil Company; that the attorney general be asked whether he has taken steps to prosecute criminally Secretary of the Navy Paul Morton, because of the rebate allowed by the Santa Fe, with which he was connected, to the Colorado Fuel & Iron Company; that the President be asked whether it is harmony with his views on rebate to retain Morton in the cabinet. Representative Baker appeared before the committee and was allowed to argue his resolutions. The republicans rejected them on the ground that the judicial investigation of the subject of which he complains are still in progress. Mr. Baker will endeavor to secure time to present his case to the House.

The House committee on interstate and foreign commerce, giving further consideration to the Quarles-Cooper bill, authorizing the interstate commerce commission to regulate foreign rates today heard serious complaints against Armour & Co. of Chicago, presented by George F. Mead, of Boston, representing fruit and produce handlers of 27 cities. He said that Armour & Co. had a monopoly of refrigerator cars on all roads and that they are holding up the shippers and that it was a foregone conclusion that the produce men must get out of business or surrender to Armour Co. At Jersey City City, Mr. Mead declared, up to two months ago, Arnold & Co. had the exclusive right to ice all cars. To outsiders he charged $4 a ton for ice and to the Pennsylvania Railroad he only charged $2.50 a ton. Armour & Co. could, he declared, ice a car or not, as they saw fit. Many times, he said, cars of fruit reached their destination, through failure to ice, in worthless condition. The Pennsylvania Railroad recognizing the injustice of this, took the contract from Armour. The committee will hear Representative Williams Randolph Hearst and his attorneys next Monday in support of the measure.

Mr. Duke was put in the psychopathic ward and kept there until Saturday afternoon, when he was removed to a sanitarium on Long Island. The curtain was rung down as soon as possible, and Heinrich Conried, the impresario, prevented a panic by urging the great audience to remain seated and not be frightened. The injured were removed to hospitals.

THAT CONFERENCE.

An important conference regarding legislative questions pending before Congress was held at the White House Saturday afternoon. In addition to President Roosevelt, the parties to the conference were Speaker Cannon, Senators Allison, Aldrich, Spooner, and Platt, of Connecticut, and Representatives Payne, Dalzell, Grosvenor and Tawney.

It is said on the authority of the President that no conclusions were reached at the conference. Indeed, the statement is made that other conferences will be held before decisions of a definite character are reached. At the conclusion of the conference the President authorized the following statement concerning it:

"Those gentlemen came here to discuss various matter of policy before Congress, including the tariff and the Interstate Commerce law, but they are not ready yet to announce any definite conclusion."

The President would go no further than that, but he emphasized the point that no definite conclusion had been reached.

An extra session and the tariff were the questions under consideration, but no conclusions were reached, and all the conferees were pledged to say nothing of what transpired. The President is now sounding the sentiment of two Houses. The interstate commerce law and railroad rates were also considered. It is said by some to be entirely likely that no definite conclusion regarding either the general subject of revision or the calling of an extraordinary session will be reached for several weeks, but others say it was decided to postpone tariff revision until fall, and not to call an extra session in the spring.

Blow to Small Insurance Concerns.

A law passed by the Legislature of Virginia a year ago without opposition has just become effective and its operations cause consternation among many small life insurance companies. The law says that every insurance company, large and small, operating in Virginia must deposit with the State at Richmond $10,000 in cash or bonds of unquestioned value. Many small companies find themselves unable to comply, which means they must close up or stand criminal prosecution.

Fifty per cent. of the Russian officers captured at Port Arthur will take the Czar's hint and share with their men the fate of prisoners of war. The Czar in a message left it optional with them to accept parole under the obligation imposed by the Japanese or share the destiny of their men.

The Electoral College.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., Jan. 9.—The electoral college met here today and voted for Parker and Davis for President and Vice President of the United States. B. G. Hankins was chosen messenger to carry the returns to Washington. Mr. Barksdale made a fiery speech in nominating Parker, and said he voted for him not by choice, but in obedience to the people's wishes. All the members were present.

Fear Japanese Squadron.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 9.—Grave fears have been created in this city by the rumor that a strong Japanese squadron is en route at all speed for Madagascar to meet Admiral Rojestvensky and take advantage of the Baltic vessels while they are undergoing repairs. If the Russian vessels try to escape, the Japanese will be able to overtake them, it is said, as Admiral Rojestvensky's vessels have inferior speed to the Japanese. These fears and the credit given the rumor indicate that the Russian semi-official quarters are in a state of blue funk.

The newspaper Viestnik reports that heavy snowstorms are raging in Manchuria. At the Nijnesndinsk and Taischet stations on the Trans-Siberian road seventy locomotives have been held up by the storm, delaying the schedule of the military trains for three days. One hundred other trains are snowbound on the Slatostoski line.

Tokio, Jan. 9.—While nothing official has as yet been obtained as to the number of Russians that paid the price of the defense of Port Arthur, it is estimated, from such facts as are at hand, that fully 25,000 of the Czar's troops were killed or wounded during the siege.

Nagasaki, Japan, Jan. 9.—One thousand wounded Russians arrived at Nagasaki, from Port Arthur today. They were taken to the hospitals of the city.

Governor Folk's Address.

Jefferson, Mo., Jan. 9.—In his inauguration address Governor Folk devoted more time to the boodle question than to other subjects. He said in part: "The legislators lot is not an easy one. The pittance he receives for his work is hardly sufficient to supply his necessary wants. The temptations on every hand assume the most insiduous forms. An innocent present given in supposed friendship may have concealed in it the germ that will lead to the downfall of legislative honors. All true Missourians are proud that the State is the leader in the fight for good government now being made all over the land. There has been no more corruption here than in some other States, but it has been exposed and punished here. This is Missouri's glory and not her shame. I promise the people of this State to do my best to punish bribery and the promise, I assure you, is going to be kept to the letter."

International Commission.

Paris, Jan. 9.—The International Commission, formed to investigate the Dogger Bank tragedy, reconvened this morning. Admiral Fournier was unanimously elected chairman. He addressed the commission, alluding to the example of wisdom and moderation given by King Edward and Czar Nicholas in constituting the commission. The body then retired for secret deliberation to agree on the regulations which shall govern the procedure of the commission. A second meeting has been announced this afternoon. It is expected that today's programme will continue, and that two meetings will be held daily until the questions are settled.

Will Not Contest.

Denver, Col., Jan. 9.—Governor Peabody says he will offer no contest. While Governor elect Alva Adams prohesies a great tidal wave of prosperity for Colorado to follow the action of the legislature in seating him as chief executive of the State, his defeated opponent was bitter in his denunciation of his supposed friends. In other quarters it is declared Governor Peabody is sure to file a contest after Adams is inaugurated Tuesday. In any event, he has several days in which to change his mind.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Jan. 9, 11 a. m.—The result of the conference between the President and leading republicans in Congress at Washington was discounted at the stock exchange this morning. The leading feature of strength in the market was Union Pacific, which advanced over a point. There was no special news regarding this property. The market in the railroad list in general enjoyed advances of substantial fractions. Among the industrials the steel stocks showed fresh strength as did Virginia-Carolina Chemical.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Letter to Alexandria Doctors

Alexandria, Virginia.

Dear Sirs: You understand chemistry; how'd you like to earn $1000?

Devoe lead-and-zinc—that's the name of our paint that takes fewer gallons than mixed paint and wears twice as long as lead-and-oil—is made of white-lead, white-zinc, its color, turpentine dryer and linseed oil.

If any chemist finds any adulteration in this paint we'll pay his bill and $1000 besides.

It's nobody's business what we put in our paint, of course, but we want it known. For lead-and-zinc and linseed oil, ground together by machinery, are the stuff to paint with; and lead-and-oil mixed by hand is not.

We want it known that one word describes the best paint in the world; and that word is Devoe. Yours truly

HOUSE.

In the House today Mr. Van Voorhis submitted the pension appropriation bill, carrying $138,250,100 to pay pensions of invalid soldiers.

Mr. Underwood filed a minority report against the measure, holding that $4,500,000 of the amount appropriated is due to the executive order creating a service pension list, which, in the opinion of democratic members of the appropriations committee, is illegal. The new bill carries $110,000 less than the appropriation for 1904.

The day, under the rule, was devoted to the consideration of District of Columbia business.

A cheer greeted the announcement of the result of the election when made by Lieut. Gov. Haggott. The republican candidates to all the other State offices were declared elected. Under the terms of the agreement reached Saturday by the various factions in the legislature, no notice of contest can be filed by Gov. Peabody until after the inauguration of Mr. Adams, which is set for 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. It has not yet been definitely decided by Gov. Peabody whether or not he will make a contest. The decision to accept prima facie result of the election was brought about by Walcott republicans. Peabody held out for some time, but was forced to yield. He may later bring contest to establish his right to the governorship.

Official Catholic Chant.

Catholic Church authorities in Washington have been informed that the official, or Vatican, edition of the Plain Chant is now being issued by the Vatican presses and will reach this country early next month. Their arrival here will end the discussion as to whether this ruling of the new pontiff is to be considered obligatory. Every bishop and priest, on the receipt of this edition, will be expected to begin to make the music conformable to the mandate. This will take time, but the Pope expects every pastor to train boys and men choirs to supplant the tabooed woman's voices. There is no longer any outspoken opposition to the change, though Washington priests frankly acknowledge that the new rule will never be either popular or artistically successful.

Six-months Voyage.

The eighteen-foot Norwegian lifeboat Uradd, from Aalesund, Norway, after an adventurous voyage of six months stranded in coming up the harbor of Gloucester, Mass., shortly after midnight Saturday but was floated yesterday with only a small hole in her outer skin. She was towed to a local wharf and will probably go to Boston for repairs.

The Uradd left Aalesund on June 27 of last year with the hope of reaching New York in the early fall. She carried Capt. Brude, her designer, and three men. Adverse weather was experienced for some time off the Irish coast, and it was not until well into November that she finally sailed into the harbor of St. Johns, N. F. The Uradd remained there a few days and six weeks ago resumed the voyage along the American coast.

Two weeks ago the craft sighted Cape Ann lights, but soon a fierce gale from the northwest carried it many miles to the southward. In a second attempt to reach a harbor it got in sight of Cape Cod light, only to go flying out to sea before another stiff westerly gale, during which the rudder was lost.

Friday the Uradd was worked up as far as Cape Cod, and that evening burned twenty signals for assistance, but none was answered. When the storm cleared yesterday the Cape Ann shore was in sight, and, with a southwest breeze, the Uradd rounded Eastern Point at midnight. Through a mistake in lights, while making the harbor she brought up on the beach.

Pope Prohibits the Veto.

One of the most important acts thus in the pontificate of Pope Pius X. has far been embodied in a secret bull, the text of which will not be made public until the pontiff is dead, when it will be read as forming part of the constitution in the next conclave to elect his successor. The bull is in connection with the claims of Austia, France, and Spain as to their right to veto the election of any cardinal to the papacy. All the cardinals have not been informed as to the contents of the document, it having been drawn up in accordance with a decision reached in meetings held by the cardinals living in Rome, with the exception of Cardinal Rampolla, who is absent from the city.

The bull is the direct result of the veto against Cardinal Rampolla, should he have been elected as successor to Leo XIII, which was presented to the conclave August 2, 1903, by Cardinal Puzyna, Bishop of Karkowiec, Austria at the instance of Emperor Francis Joseph.

Briefly, the bull says that all cardinals are absolutely forbidden, under penalty of exclusion from the conclave and not being allowed to vote, to be the bearer of a message of veto, and that if any cardinal, knowing the intention of his ruler to object to the election of a cardinal communicates this intention to his colleagues in the conclave, he also will be excluded and not allowed to vote.

The work of changing the water main in West End, where the new railway tracks will pass under that roadway, was completed yesterday afternoon. During the day the water supply was confined to the smaller of the two mains, which proved in a measure satisfactory. Today the water has been flowing freely. There was no alarm of fire while the large main was disconnected and consequently there was no extra demand for water. Some of the church organs which are operated by water had to resort to the pumping process, while others minus such appliances were rendered mute by the small supply of water.

Fellow-sufferers.

People who are often inconvenienced by the unsatisfactory transportation facilities between Alexandria and Washington are, it seems, not the only sufferers. There are others, and a New York paper a few days ago in describing transportation to Hempstead, Yonkers, New Rochelle, Metuchen and Montclair tells of scenes similar to those witnessed now and then by Alexandrians. One of the commuters while compelled to walk up and down in front of the station to keep from freezing opened a poetic vein and described his experience in half a column of verses.

Installation of Officers.

The following officers of Potomac Lodge, No. 38, I. O. O. F., were installed last Friday night by Past Grand Master W. P. Henshaw. Noble Grand, A. H. Mitchell; Vice Grand, H. Friedlander; Recording Secretary, W. W. Sherwood; Financial Secretary, W. E. Latham; Treasurer, L. M. Davis; Warden, W. E. Risden; Conductor, A. J. Hall; Outside Guard, F. W. Yates; Inside Guard, W. Wills; R. S. to N. G., J. T. Harrison; L. S. to N. G., J. R. Mansfield; R. S. S., R. D. Rittenour; L. S. S., C. C. Charles; R. S. to V. G., M. Spiro; L. S. to V. G., D. W. Early; Chaplain, E. Lyles.

The Amerigo Vespucci.

The Italian cruiser Amerigo Vespucci will, it is stated, come up the Chesapeake within the next two weeks and will anchor at Baltimore. The Vespucci is the training ship of the Italian naval cadets, and is no stranger to these waters. In 1898, just prior to the outbreak of the war with Spain, the Vespucci came up the Potomac and anchored off this city, remaining here for several days while the cadets aboard her visited this city and Washington. The last visit of the vessel to this country was in January of last year, when she when to Baltimore and remained for several days.

Obstruction in Sewer.

The obstruction in the King street sewer, near the intersection of King and Fairfax streets, Friday night, flooded a number of cellars on King street and caused some damage. The old Hydraulion fire engine was brought into service, and later the Columbia engine was called out, and, while the water was reduced, it finally became necessary to dig a trench near Burke and Herbert's bank building in order to get at the obstruction. Several men were engaged yesterday in making the necessary investigation and repairs. The work was continued today.

Justice Appointed.

Another move made by the Commonwealth's Attorney in the Alexandria county Circuit Court Saturday was the application for the appointment of J. E. Supplee as a special justice of the peace in Jefferson District, where warrants already drawn against certain alleged promoters of the St. Asaph pool rooms will have to be tried. The attorney made his application on the ground of public necessity, which was accepted by the court. There were already three justices of the peace in that district.

Raid at St. Asaph.

At 2:30 o'clock this evening on a warrant drawn by Commonwealth's Attorney Brent of this city five policemen proceeded to St. Asaph in a wagon, raided the pool room at that place, put the employees under arrest and started with them for this city. The raid was quietly made and no one had any premonition of the procedure. The raid was made under the provision of the State law which gives the city authorities one mile jurisdiction beyond their corporate limits.

The cases against the St. Asaph people are to come up before Judge Nicol in the Circuit Court of the county tomorrow, and the action of the city authorities caused some comment.

At 4 o'clock this evening those arrested at St. Asaph had not reached this city and neither the Mayor nor the police on duty at the station house knew anything of the raid, save that it had been made.

Personal.

Miss Gertie Selecman, of Occoquan, is visiting her friend, Miss Rosa Duffey, on Cameron street.

Mr. C. C. Carlin went to Richmond today to attend the meeting of the State electors, which cast the vote of Virginia for Parker and Davis.

Miss Beall Daingerfield and Miss Hildreth Gatewood are the guests of Mrs. James Reid at the U. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md.

Mr. Joseph W. Rodgers and Miss Lula E. Sutton will be married tonight at 8:30 at the residence of Miss Sutton's brother-in-law, Mr. W. K. Griffith, on Wolfe street, Rev. J. H. S. Ewell officiating.

Miss Lesa and Miss Grace Anderson, of this city, were recently the house guests of Mrs. C. A. Swanson, in Washington, for several days.

Mr. W. P. Henshaw, of this city, district deputy grand master of Odd Fellows, paid an official visit to Falls Church Lodge, No. 11, on Thursday night and installed the officers for the ensuing six months.

Corporation Court.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.]

The docket was called and cases set. The Commonwealth's cases were fixed as follows: That of M. Hurst for tomorrow; Alphonse Antonio, Wednesday, January 18; W. O. Pollard, Monday, January 23; Winter Crupper, January 25.

The case of Robert Taylor vs. A. H. Penn was dismissed.

Remington Machine Co. vs. Charles King & Son; dismissed.

Wm. A. Smoot, trustee, vs. Ida V. Wise et ais.; decree appointing R. F. Knox, commissioner, to sell the property.

Edmund Hill, jr., was appointed administrator of the estate of Edmund Hill, sr., deceased.

An authenticated copy of the will of James B. McNair was filed for probate.

Judge Barley this evening admitted Mordecai Hurst to bail for his appearance in court tomorrow.

Places for Railroad Shops.

Plans are at present under way by the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac for shops in the new yards, now in course of construction north of Alexandria. There will be a round-house with eleven stalls, machine shop, blacksmith shop, store-room and an electric power plant. Work on the new buildings will begin as soon as the work on the new yards has progressed sufficiently. The new shops will be used for the purpose of making only minor repairs, as the main shops will be retained in Richmond.

The Weather

The cold weather of Saturday night and yesterday was followed by milder conditions today. The northwest wind wafted the ice in the river to the Maryland flats, and the tides being low the cakes piled one upon another and formed gorges. The keen winds of yesterday and low temperature kept most people within doors.

Resigned.

Mr. F. S. Neptune, of Minnesota, who recently exchanged places as mail clerk in the city postoffice with Mr. Robert Whaley, has resigned, to accept a position in the dead letter office in Washington. Mr. Thomas McFarland, a clerk in the office, has been promoted to the place thus made vacant.

Revival Services.

Revival services will be inaugurated in the M. E. Church South tonight. They will be conducted by Rev. C. D. Bulla, pastor of the Southern Methodist Church of Winchester. The services will be continued nightly until further notice.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A wheel of an oil wagon fell off at the intersection of Wilkes and Pitt streets this morning. The tank in falling was considerably injured.

The Circuit Court of the county is not in session today but will meet again tomorrow when the St. Asaph pool room case will come up on demurrer.

The annual meeting of the Business Men's League will be held tonight at 8 o'clock. The election of officers will take place on this occasion.

A Greek fruit dealer was arrested today on a charge of perjury. The warrant was sworn out by a city merchant, who had had dealings with the accused.

Mr. Julian D. Knight has been awarded the contract for making extensive alterations in Messrs. E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' buildings on King and Fairfax streets.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Consolidated Quarry Company for the election of directors was held at the office of the company, 111 south Fairfax street, this evening.

The advertisement of Mr. Robert L. Grimes, the well-known tailor, should be read by all in need of goods in his line. He is closing out his entire stock of fall and winter goods at and below cost.

There was no session of the Police Court this morning. But one arrest had been made since Saturday, that of an old offender, who had been picked up in an intoxicated condition. He was dismissed with an admonition.

Several men engaged in a fight last Saturday night about 12 o'clock in the neighborhood of Gibbon and Pitt streets. During the row it is said bottles were used as missiles. A gang of men awoke a number of people last night in the extreme southeastern portion of the city by boisterous and disorderly conduct.

Sharps and Flats will meet tonight at 7:45 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

Bettina Girard Dead.

Mrs. Elizabeth Godwin Witter, known on the stage as "Bettina Girard," a daughter of the late Gen. Ordway, of Washington, died at the Roosevelt Hospital in New York early yesterday morning. Bettina Girard adopted the stage as her career some twenty years ago. She was the understudy for some of the leading singers, and acquitted herself admirably whenever called upon to take their places. She was young, decidedly attractive in manner and personality, sang fairly well and had an abundance of artistic temperament. She was a member of several light opera troupes, and subsequently played in melodrama. She was a woman of great charm, who had the marks of culture and social refinement, and her natural vivacity and grace, as well as amiability and talents, gave her a good professional standing. Her aged mother and her seventeen-year old daughter live in Washington. The funeral will occur there and will be private.

Working Night and Day.

The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. These Pills change weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain-fag into mental power. They're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25c per box. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

Do Not Suppress a Cough.

When you have a cough do not try to suppress it, but remove the cause. The cough is only a sympton of some disease, and the disease is what you should cure, then the cough will stop of itself. The most common cause of coughing is a cold. Anodynes will promptly suppress the cough, and preparations containing chloroform, opium, etc., are used for that purpose, but they do not cure the cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy on the other hand does not suppress the cough, but relieves it by removing from the throat and lungs the mucus which obstructed the breathing and allaying the irritation and tickling in the throat. It also opens the secretions and effectually and permanently cures the cold as well as the cough. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Coughs and Colds.

All coughs, colds and pulmonary complaints that are curable are quickly cured by One Minute Cough Cure. Clears the phlegm draws out inflammation and heals and soothes the affected parts, strenghtens the lungs, wards off pneumonia. Harmless and pleasant to take. Sold by all druggists.

The Woman's Exchange

at Lee Camp Hall will be open TOMORROW, Thursday, from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m., and the attention of the public is especially called to the display of needlework on hand.

VIRGINIANS.

'Twas the first day of the New Year,
On a lovely Sunday morn,
When we met in dear old Washington
For Virginia—a sojourn.

A newspaper from Uncle Abe, with
"God bless you, sonny, man;
When I tells you dat, dar Cap'in
I place you in the Holy Land."

Three pairs of boys and sweethearts,
With, of course, the chaperon,
At last landed at the station,
God's country—Virginia—home.

What cared we for mud or snow or slush,
For country roads, and all
The inconvenience we endured;
'Twas pleasure, till a fall

Into an unobserved forgotten ditch
Was luckily averted
By the ever watchful maiden dame,
Who declared we would be "hurted."

Our reception was a masterpiece
Of "Good Will Toward All Men,"
And we ate sufficient dinner
For the heartiest "Amen."

But to tell you of that dinner—
Turkey, pork and pumpkin-pie—
My Aunt always was a winner
With a stove and things to fry.

Grandmamma was there, of course,
And Uncle Bill, you bet;
Who could give you just enough dry jokes
To keep you from the wet.

Aunt Marthy with her same complaint,
Loved the graphophone,
And the piece that touched the softest spot
Was "Old Folks At Home."

She being strictly temperance,
Made a great oration
When unintentionally
Some one mentioned "Carrie Nation."

The girls, the dearest in the land,
Our sweethearts—nothing more,
For whom we would be willing
To crawl upon the floor.

And perhaps they did not tease us,
Well, you have another guess;
Some one thought of a country lane,
Perchance you know the rest.

The half-a-dozen scooted off
Without the maiden lady.
Returned. The scolding we received
Was just a trifle shady.

We strolled hand in hand together
'Long the Seminary Road
With the steeple in the distance
And the place of our abode.

At last the parting hour arrived;
With tears of joy we fled
To the same unwelcome station
Anticipating home and bed.

God bless our home and parents,
The sweethearts—the pumpkin-pie.
May we never be more happy
Till we reach our Home on High

Was the prayer which I uttered
The night of that Sunday morn,
When I left the Nation's Capital
For the land where I was born.

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equaled. Joe Golobick, of Colusa, Calif, writes: "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from Rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely cured me." Just as good for Liver and Kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

No More Stomach Troubles,

All stomach trouble is removed by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It gives the stomach perfect rest by digesting what you eat without the stomach's aid. The food builds up the body, the rest restores the stomach to health. You don't have to diet yourself when taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. J. D. Erskine, of Allenville, Mich., says, "I suffered Heartburn and Stomach trouble for some time. My sister-in-law has had the same trouble and was not able to eat for six weeks. She lived entirely on warm water. After taking two bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure she was entirely cured. She now eats heartily and is in good health I am glad to say Kodol gave me instant relief." Sold by all druggists.
